What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" It in The Sun.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

B. J. Potter, superintendent of the Central Phosphate Company with headquarters at Tioga, was in the city yesterday.

Wade Thomas, a progressive farmer of the Montecchia section, was among those who came to this city trading yesterday.

John Crown of Rocky Point, one of the most progressive truckers of the county, was among those who visited the city yesterday.

E. A. Carlisle of Anderson, S. C., a brother of Judge J. A. Carlisle, after spending a day or two here, departed for his home yesterday.

J. E. Futch of Alachua, president of the J. E. Futch Company, one of the largest general stores in the county, was visiting his family in this city yesterday.

S. C. Dell of Alachua, member of the firm of Dell, Jordan & Co., and one of the cleverest young fellows in the county, was a business visitor to this city Wednesday.

Mrs. Eugenia J. Langford of Grady was among the visitors to this city yesterday, having come for the purpose of making final proof of a homestead in the United States land office.

Mrs. B. T. Arnow is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cato, at High Springs. Friends of Mr. Cato will regret to learn that he is in very poor health, and is confined to his bed. It is hoped that he will soon recover.

W. W. Clyatt of Ocala, manager of the Marion County Abstract Company, was in the city for a few hours Wednesday, the guest of his brother, L. J. Clyatt. He was en route home from Levyville, where he is interested in a stock farm with his brothers.

T. J. McRae of Hawthorn, one of the best known and most prominent citizens in this county, was among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday. Mr. McRae is a broker in furniture and office supplies, and is enjoying a fine business. He has just returned from points in West Florida.

H. Herzog, Sr., who went to White Springs Tuesday to spend a few days, has returned to this city. Mr. Herzog stated that he was much impressed with the Springs and the Hamilton Hotel, but the shooting was not as good as he expected to find, and, being an enthusiastic sportsman, decided to return to the meadows and fields of old Alachua.

The Robert Burns Society of Jacksonville celebrated the 146th anniversary of the noted Scotch poet Wednesday evening. Among the names of participants we notice that of Mr. J. O. LaFontaine, formerly of this city. Picture John with his moustache waxed a la Francois and dancing the "highland fling" to the music of the melodious bagpipe.

W. Oscar Morris, a young man well known in this city who has been in the employ of Phifer Bros., New York Racket, for several years, has resigned his position to accept an agency with the New York Life Insurance Company. Mr. Morris' headquarters will be in Nashville, Tenn. He is a clever fellow, and indications are that he will enjoy a fine business. His friends here wish him much success.

D. F. Graham of Piedmont, W. Va., a brother of James M. Graham, is in the city greeting old friends for a few days. Mr. Graham was for many years a resident of this city, having been at one time cashier of the First National Bank. He is a gentleman of genial nature, and is destined to make friends wherever he goes. Mr. Graham is a personal friend of Hon. H. G. Davis, candidate for vice-president of the United States, and has been engaged in business with him.

Jesse Clark, traveling salesman for the H. W. Roundtree Trunk and Bag Company of Richmond, Va., yesterday received telegraphic information of the death of his father, which occurred suddenly at Lawrenceville, Va., Wednesday. The telegram announced that Mr. Clark dropped dead in the railroad station, just as he was preparing for a trip. This information was a great shock to the son, and his friends here will sympathize with him in this hour of bereavement.

From Saturday's Daily Sun.

READ THIS.

Ripley, Tenn., June 1, 1901.

Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried various remedies without satisfactory results, I was persuaded to give your "Texas Wonder" a trial. I have used one bottle, and although my case is one of long standing that baffled the skill of the best physician, yet it yielded at once to "The Texas Wonder," which I heartily recommend to all suffering from kidney and bladder troubles.

Yours truly,

W. H. Bauros,
Pastor Baptist Church, Ripley, Tenn.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

Wanted—One 8, 10 or 12 horse-power upright boiler in condition that can be repaired. Apply "M," care Gainesville Sun. wbt.

Rev. S. W. Colson, a prominent citizen of Jennings Lake, after a brief but pleasant visit to relatives here, has returned to his home.

W. G. Richardson of Osceola, a valued employee of the Central Phosphate Company, commissary department, was a visitor to this city yesterday.

Miss Agnes Zetrouer, the accomplished and efficient teacher of the Arredondo school, was in the city yesterday on business connected with the superintendent's office.

D. E. Knight of LaCrosse was transacting business in this city yesterday. Mr. Knight has been operating gins at LaCrosse and Alachua during the past season, and reports a good business.

The ladies of the Twentieth Century Club have decided to give an entertainment on the evening of Wednesday, February 1, for the purpose of beginning funds for a library. Particulars will be given later.

John Grimes, formerly of this city but now in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line at High Springs, was greeting old friends here yesterday. Mr. Grimes is now hustling in the High Springs yards and will soon secure a promotion.

Judge Syd L. Carter yesterday received by express a very fine bloodhound pup, a gift from a friend. The genial Judge is now trying to determine whether to train the animal to hunt criminals or to run down delinquent clients.

J. W. Patton has returned from the West End, where he has been surveying for Michigan parties for the past few days. Mr. Patton states that the people of the West End are prosperous, and that everyone desiring to work has a position of some kind.

L. J. Burkheim, the clothier, has returned from Baltimore and New York, where he went to purchase his fall line. He states that he purchased the swellest stock ever seen in this section. All patterns are up-to-date, and are bound to please his most particular customers.

A. E. Summers of High Springs was in the city on business yesterday. Mr. Summers is a member of the firm of the Summers Furniture House, which was burned out Thursday, and was receiving the sympathy of his friends. This is the second loss sustained by the firm within the past month, their millinery store having burned recently.

The work on the new building of Miss Eva Haile, East Orange street, between West Main and East Main, is well under way, and the contractor expects to push the building to completion. The building will be two stories in height, will contain eight rooms, and will be modern in every respect. It will no doubt rent readily and command a good price.

The Seventh Day Adventists continue to hold meetings at the North Gainesville Hall, and these meetings are largely attended every night. Elders Christer and Killen of Orlando, who are conducting the meetings, are interesting and impressive talkers, and the congregation is growing daily. The family of Elder Killen have arrived in this city and will make Gainesville their future home.

His Honor Judge Mason, county judge, complains that business is rather dull in his office at present, and good-naturedly declares if it was not for an occasional marriage license he would be compelled to "stand off" the grocer. The Judge yesterday issued licenses to Chas. Shepherd and Callie Charles, Prince Johnson and Emma Wilson, all colored. Here's luck to the whole business.

Dr. Sanderson of Uniontown, Pa., who is spending the winter here, has returned from Daytona, where he attended the opening automobile races. He states that excitement was running high, each automobile enthusiast having his preference of machine. He has written his home papers a very interesting sketch of the races, in which he told them he had seen the world's record broken—a mile in thirty-four and two-fifths seconds. This was accomplished on the opening day.

A patent medicine show of rather a local nature has arrived in the city, and began yesterday its performances on the northwest corner of the square. It is an effort of the Florida Herbal Company of Jacksonville to advertise its products, which is done in the nature of a minstrel show, followed by an advertising spell. The show yesterday attracted a great many, who enjoyed the performance of the trio of negroes and learned something new about Florida's possibilities in the production of medicine.

Robert McClellan, the undertaker, returned yesterday from Bronson, where he was summoned to embalm the body of the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Malphurs. The remains were shipped to Dawson, Ga., for interment. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Malphurs extend sympathy in the loss of their child.

S. F. Waits of Grove Park, a wood and cross-tie contractor, was among the visitors to this city yesterday. Mr. Waits has just shipped a carload of telephone poles to McIntosh, which will be used in the extension of the line of the East Florida Telephone Company. This company is now building between Micanopy and McIntosh.

We notice in the issue of The Times-Union of Friday where the handsome home of Col. T. V. Porter came near being destroyed by fire on Thursday. This residence has not been completed longer than a year, and is one of the most modern in the South. He is to be congratulated that the flames were discovered in sufficient time to be subdued.

After spending a couple of days here on business, H. C. McCreary, formerly of this city but now residing in Greenback, Ark., has returned to his home. Mr. McCreary came to consult with Manager E. E. Voyle of the Abstract and Realty Company regarding the new residence which the former is erecting on West Main street N., for which Mr. Voyle let the contract. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the progress being made upon the building, which will be one of the most modern in the city when completed.
